

Sometimes Families

by Amy Louise Phillips-Losso

Sometimes families have six sisters,

sometimes parents have three boys.

Sometimes families toast birthdays,

sometimes they share each others' joys.

Sometimes families visit bridges,

sometimes they visit waterfalls,

Sometimes they have happy foggy weddings,

sometimes they snack when gelatto calls.

Sometimes families pose with their doggie,

sometimes they pose while doing chores.

Sometimes they pose with giant tree trunks,

sometimes they pose indoors.

Sometimes families have joyful if damp weddings,

and a wedding makes a family that is new.

Sometimes a new family celebrates in the sunset,

sometimes a family dog does too.
