Sources for your study for your standardized tests include every resource around you, like family members, friends, books, artifacts, the internet, teachers. Not only that, this research will help you to add to and sharpen up your Family Canon.

1) Select anything you want and/or need to know from your family stories, or from anything else that comes up as you study.

2) Research it using all sources you can.

Keep track of your studies. Do so in any way you wish, but do it. You'll be glad.

3) Return to the test-question data banks and see what jewels you can find.

4) Keep going all around the world, even if it is just that you want to travel there.

5) Write more questions if they are missing, or just for your amusement and edification.
